

THE WEATHER
IN WISCONSIN

Snow probable Thursday night and Friday; warmer Thursday night.

Failure of Arnold, to appear at Superior; Tuesday, which was the day scheduled for his arraignment was explained by Mr. Dougherty as being a mixup between his office and that of the United States attorney in New York, which arose out of the former plan to have both arraignment and trial at Superior in July.

BANNER CROWDS AT CULINARY SHOW

"S. R. O." Sign Hung Out at Gazette School in Leath's.

Every day at the Gazette Free Cooking school held this week at Leath's home to be the banner day. Wednesday's session was conspicuous for the largest attendance, including last year; and the presence of women from Milton, Evansville, and Edgerton. Many out-of-town women who were unable to secure seats the opening day were in the front rows at 1 p. m. The seating space has been enlarged considerably by the understanding many were forced to stand. The lesson proved as interesting that those without seats remained until the end just as those comfortably seated up in front.

Cookies Lore Demonstrated.
Cake and cookie lore was dispensed by Miss Elsie Hinkley, Wednesday, as she deftly fashioned delicious fig newtons or "fried" boiled frosting. After watching Miss Hinkley's easy and sure method, nothing seems less formidable than the time honored difficult boiled frosting.

"Peanut cookies, filled cookies or fig newtons, who care, none are as good as those made at Wednesday's lesson. The meeting opened with Miss Hinkley preparing potato chips, giving many little "tips" on deep frying and how to make them helpful to the housewife.

An interesting lesson was given Thursday afternoon in preparing meats and salad dressings. How to judge meat cuts and how to treat tender and tough cuts made this lesson highly instructive. Fruit stuffed asparagus, scalloped potatoes and dried beef were prepared.

School Closes Friday.

Mock mayonnaise, three minute mayonnaise and other popular dressings were made and suggestions on various salads given. The school closes Friday with company and buffet luncheon. Miss Hinkley has obtained silver and dishes from local merchants and will give a demonstration of table setting for all occasions. Baked ice cream will be a feature for Friday. The school begins at 1:30 instead of 2 p. m. Friday.

The Art of Making Perfect Salad Dressings Explained and Demonstrated

Free Lecture and Demonstration By Miss Elsie Hinkley, Cooking Expert, Tomorrow Afternoon From
1:30 O'clock, in Leath's Store

Every woman in Janesville will be interested in this timely subject. It has always proven one of the greatest attractions of the entire course of cooking lessons wherever they are given. This school is under the auspices of the Gazette and the Corn Products Refining Co., whose products, Karo, Argo, Corn Starch and Mazola, are in practically every home.

The latest and best methods of cake making, salad preparation, seasoning and shortening, are demonstrated. Special stress is laid upon kitchen management, in saving of time, strength and energy. Everything said about freedom from smoke in cooking with Mazola, and about Mazola not carrying odors or flavors from one food to another, will be proved at these demonstrations. The expert fries fish, onions and a fritter in the same pan—at the same time—and you may prove, by tasting, for yourself, that there is no

Hot Water A Cure for Kitchen Cares

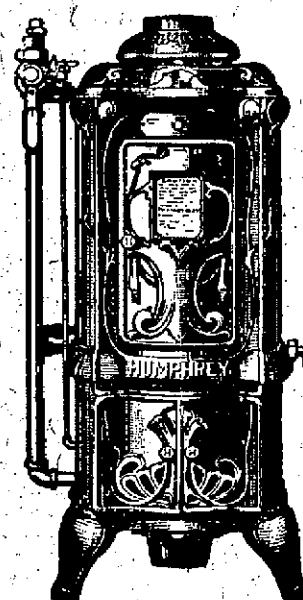

All the hot water that you want when you want it—heated as it runs fresh from the mains.

MISS HINKLEY RECOMMENDS THE HUMPHREY AUTOMATIC GAS
WATER HEATER

It's a truly wonderful household convenience. It can be installed easily in any out-of-the-way place—usually in the basement—and will supply not only the kitchen, but the laundry, bathroom and bedroom wash stands with piping hot water. It burns gas—the clean fuel. Absolutely automatic. Open the hot water faucet and you get hot water instantly. Close the faucet and the gas shuts off and expense stops. Think what such automatic service means in caring for general cleanliness and health.

Let us explain and demonstrate this wonderful heater.

High School Band Is Big Addition

Nearly everyone's soul is stirred by music and if there has been any innovation at the Evansville high school in recent years which has met with almost unanimous approval it is the organization of the high school band, which has now been in progress three months under the able direction and instruction of R. C. Jack, who also instructs the orchestra in the high school band and several others, working through the Holton company of Elkhart.

Since Burr W. Tolles left Evansville and came to Janesville, where he is now director of the Bower City band, Evansville has not had a musical organization, so the high school band will fill a gap in the community which is considered essential to most every town.

High school students have readily grasped the opportunity to exhibit their musical talent, and now with a band of 25 organized, Sept. 10, Evansville has started enrolling students of both the high school and upper grades for another class. About 16 have been enrolled thus far. Students are to have one large band but instruction in two classes, as Mr. Jack gets best results with the smaller groups.

The members of the organized band are as follows:
Clarinet—Genevieve Hubbard, Mae Miller, Ronald Jones, A. Sparr, George Miller, Ralph White, Keith Weaver, John Paulson, Randall Copeland and Payson Harper.
Cornet—Gordon Baker, Carrol Ely, Eugene Ballar, Willis Miller, Ward Gleason and Burton Gorrell, Le Verne Miller.
Saxophones—Maurice Bly, Raymond Knapp, George Dill, Ernest Miller and B. C. Evans.
Bass—Hugh Bowen.
Drums—Bass, Richard Curran, snare, Walter Foster and Donovan Gary.
Trombones—Herbert Blum and Rowland Porter.
Shops: Wethers, aged, $6.00@8.25; native ewes, fair to best, $4.75@7.25; yearlings, all grades, $1.00@12.00; native lambs, medium to good, $12.25@13.75; feeding lambs, fair to best, $13.00@15.00.

seen here recently in a minor part in "The Kentucky Derby." "The Kentucky Derby" is said to have that atmosphere of the old south and annual horse races that same nature so well liked. The locale of "The Kentucky Derby," however, extends to New York and even to China. The story is that of two crooks who win a place in the heart of the old colonel, posing as relatives of his. When his son announces his marriage to the stableman's daughter, he is banished to New York, where he is abandoned to China. He and his wife return in time to save the colonel and betray the crooks. There are exciting race scenes.

In addition to the handsome hero, Lillian Rich and a long list of others have parts.

TOURIST CAMP WILL BE ON NEW SITE THIS YEAR

Evansville's tourist camp, which under the able direction of Fred Wilder the past two seasons has meant in publicity for the city many times what it has cost to maintain, is to move.

The new site is in the process of selection, by the tourist camp committee, the necessity for a new site being the desire of Paul P. Pullen to have it removed from the property on which his new residence is now located.

A very desirable location for the camp, allowing two entrances instead of one as it has at the present site may be taken on park property. One entrance would be just south of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad tracks, and off Highway 20, and the other would be through the park, as it is now.

The city has appropriated $1,000 for maintenance of the park during 1923.

ROAD COMPLETION TO BE CELEBRATED Janesville and Evansville to Have Jubilee in Few Months.

With the completion of highway 10, Evansville-Janesville, an inter-community celebration is to be undertaken marking the linking of two more cities of Rock county by concrete. There is but six miles of the road to be paved the coming spring and it is expected this will take only about 60 days, for the county has been averaging about a mile in 10 days with its road building equipment.

The pit machinery is in place south of Janesville and an early start will be obtained as soon as weather permits. Due to the shortage of cement, the county committee was forced to leave unopened a stretch starting at Leyden and extending north for about 3.5 miles. The last three miles paved on the upper half, is declared by paving experts to be one of the best finished concrete roads in Wisconsin. Improvements were made on the finishing machine to take out "keweenaw" which is hardly a bump in this stretch.

Once the concrete is complete, an inter-city celebration is to be held in one of the two cities with a company making the trip over the finished road.

Railroad Must Provide for Safety

Under the orders of the railroad commission, the Chicago & North-western railroad must provide for safety against accidents at the Main and North Madison street crossings before Feb. 11, if the provisions of the order are not met out. City Attorney R. M. Richmond was notified Dec. 11 by the railroad commission of the decision under which gates must be placed at the Main street crossing and a double wide-way signal at the North Madison street crossing. Due to their being no room on the railroad right of way, the gates will be in front of the stores, causing slight inconvenience.

Surveys have been made for the installation, and the signals may soon be placed.

Evansville Resents Attack Made on its Fair by the Mayor of Janesville

Interest of farmers in the vicinity of Evansville and Janesville business men, who are members of the annual stockholders' meeting of the Rock County Fair association, which will convene here at 2 p. m. next Tuesday.

The annual report of the officers will be given and directors elected to succeed Walter Gollmar, D. W. Miller, Riley Seales, L. H. Campbell and E. H. Babcock, whose three year terms expire. Directors will meet later to select officers. Present officers are: President, W. S. Gollmar; treasurer, Leonard P. Eager; secretary, C. S. Ware.

Consideration is being given to the enlargement of the grandstand, the present seating capacity being 1,000 and inadequate to meet the demands on the heaviest day of the fair. An addition to the stand to provide seats for 500 more is thought to be the size of an enlargement, if any is authorized by the stockholders.

Not a Good Year
Last year was not a good year for the Rock county fair in point of attendance, fair officials admit, because of the excessively hot weather which prevailed during the fair time, which was the first week in September. Many persons in Evansville who had season tickets did not go to the fair on account of the weather.

From the standpoint of exhibits, the fair had a good year. Secretary C. S. Ware contends, pointing out that it was necessary to pay $600 for tents for covering the overflow of exhibits. There was an additional tent each for the floral, agricultural, chicken and automobile exhibits. Which leads to the belief that the fair association, which be wise, Mr. Ware states, in providing more permanent buildings with the money being paid out for only temporary accommodations.

Taking exception to remarks made by Mayor Thomas Welsh at the annual meeting of the Janesville Fair association Saturday, that all Evansville had was a pumpkin show and a few baseball games, Secretary Ware characterizes it as a wilful lie.

Defending the Fair
"We paid $4,500 in premiums to exhibitors at the fair, and we had only $150 left over," said Mr. Ware. "We had the nicest display of cattle we ever had before by far, and the best of breeds of every description and more complete than at the Janesville fair. Judges of the floral and agricultural exhibits declared those at the Rock county fair to be the finest they had judged in the state."

Mayor Welsh made the statement that we ran behind last year and have every year. Very few fairs pay their way and even the state fair ran behind $150,000 the past season, so we don't want him to worry about it. Farmers in this vicinity have been willing to support the fair and accept themselves every year for the deficiency. In regard to offers made by the Janesville Fair association, which Mayor Welsh says have been made, I wish to say that never has an offer been made to us by anyone in an official capacity.

Doing Something
"The Rock County Fair association was organized in 1895, and after running 25 years the actual debt is only $6,000, which is a terrible thing for the mayor to worry about. There is no mortgage on the property and we have 24 acres of land, 21 of which are within the city limits; three sheds for hogs, two for sheep, two new barns for cattle, two for horses, with 60 box stalls for harness racing horses, an agricultural hall, and a grandstand with concession booths."

The fair association is capitalized at $10,000 and has about 250 stockholders. Every member is urged to

Taxes Being Paid Slowly

Evansville residents are in no rush to pay their share of what it will cost to run the city government this year, judging from the lack of eagerness with which they pay their bills on City Treasurer C. J. Smith.

Mr. Smith reports a total of approximately $14,200 paid to date of a total of $15,000 which he expects to collect. Feb. 28 is the day on which he will collect a 2 per cent penalty on all those paying taxes after that date. Mack Van Wormer had the honor of being the first to clear up his debt to the city, paying his taxes Jan. 2. Seven others paid on that date but Mr. Van Wormer was ahead of them all.

School Exams This Week

This is the dreaded week of the past semester for pupils of the Evansville high school, with examinations being taken and which will be concluded on Friday. The second semester will open Monday, Sept. 3. O. Evans states, and it is hoped to distribute report cards either Monday or Tuesday. The high school closed the semester with an enrollment of 210, which is seven more than at the beginning of the year. The superintendent expects to turn out about 40 persons in June who have successfully completed four years of high school work.

School Board Meets Friday

Routine business will be transacted by the Evansville board of education at the monthly meeting which will be held at 8 p. m. Friday. The meeting is usually held in the evening but because of the Commercial club banquet it is being held at the earlier hour. C. J. Peargall is president and W. B. Green secretary.

EVANSVILLE YOUTH WINS CORN EXHIBIT

PERCY DANKS

Percy Danks, Evansville youth, is one of those who has helped to keep "Rock County First" in the junior agricultural movement, having one first on his exhibit of silver king corn at the International Hay and Grain show at Chicago last month. Danks beat all competitors from the states of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, which comprises the second region.

Danks is only 14 years old and freshman at high school, and has done remarkably well for two years in the Acre of Corn club, taking first in the Evansville club both on general work and for exhibit. Out of five prizes at the hay and grain show for junior corn exhibition, Rock county took two, Brayton Hogan of Clinton winning fifth place.

Danks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Danks, living in Center township, on Evansville R. R. 16. He hopes to become Rock county champion this year. He will enroll in both the corn and the pig club.

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS

Pandora Nicholson is so shy that new people are afraid to get acquainted with her. She lives in a sort of poor relation with her aunt Maude, her uncle Peter, and her father Gladys, who is hearty, bumptious, noisy and the most popular girl in Norris City. Pandora is in this position because she is neglected and overlooked. She has been neglected and overlooked so much that she believes herself completely invisible. So, unattractive, mentally and physically ever to make friends. When her mother begins to like her, she returns his affection to an intense degree. The friendship becomes a love. When Gladys decides she wants Maude, possibly because he was the only boy who never paid any attention to her, goes after him and succeeds in marrying him. Pandora is heartily glad. She suddenly finds a new world opens to her. She takes charge of Gloria's home and small son, Frank.

AT THE PARTY

Chapter 64.
George started towards Gloria. He was sure Gloria saw him coming, and knew that he was going to ask for a dance again. She stood by the door watching him. She took away her head and looked up at the college professor, taking his arm as she spoke. Pan saw the man say something in answer to her.

Then, when George reached her, Pan heard her voice.
"George, I'm so sorry. But this is promised."
And George came back to Pan with whom he should ask that it never occurred to her to resent being a second choice.

George came back to Pan with whom he should ask that it never occurred to her to resent being a second choice. Pan found she could go along with him more easily than with anyone she knew.
"I'm such a poor dancer, I don't know any of these steps," she apologized, as she always apologized to any partner.

"You're very light on your feet and very easily led," George said, during the steps, as anyone can do that. But the other is a virtue one must be born with.

Again, the girl, with self-confidence, did not know she had any ability of this sort at all.

A young woman came in very late accompanied by a pink checked young man with a mustache like two, tiny black dots on each side of his upper lip. She was exquisitely blonde, she wore a Greek gown of pale blue silk that made a lovely evening frock and gold sandals on silk stockings. She was introduced as Miss Zaghloff; she was a Russian professional dancer and the pink checked young man was her English accompanist—and as it happened, her husband. However, as his name was Higgins, most people called her by her professional title.

"You dance beautifully," the woman said to Pan, with the faintest trace of a foreign accent in her voice. "George has been telling me you are afraid of yourself on the floor. But you have the gift of being in motion with the music—dare, what do I want to say?"

"Mademoiselle has the gift of continuous motion," said Timothy Higgins with a much more Russian manner than his really Russian wife. "There is no break—one line melts into another as she dances—she is awkward at it a little, she is so young yet—but the awkwardness has a charm."

"You must come to one of my classes," Miss Zaghloff said to the woman. "I will show you—the woman gave Pan a sweet vague smile from the bust of eyes, and went off to dance with Bobby."

The Russian was easy to get along with. But there was Aunt Harriet who, motioned her to a chair near her.

"There aren't enough men to go around, sit here and talk to me," she said. "Tell me, are you interested in women's clubs?"

This was getting awful again!

How her hostess would lose interest as soon as she confessed she knew nothing of them! She felt cold and nervous again, she could feel some thing coming inside her, all the warmth beginning to go—just as it had done in the days when she went to Gladys parties. But she confessed her ignorance.

"I'm getting up a matinee Wednesday for the benefit of a woman's hospital, and I want some club in the east side. We teach arts and crafts work to the children in a neighborhood center," Aunt Harriet said.

And she said Pan should go there all hour before, and take a lesson in the work, in order to help teach later.

She was not successful with the hostess. She was talking to her head and around her shoulder, and generally acted as though Pan were a small and insignificant fence. From this uncomfortable position, Bobby rescued her to dance.

With the book collector she got on better. She sat and listened saying nothing because she knew nothing of this woman's hobby. She was talking, not about old and rare editions, as Pan hoped since she wanted to learn something of this, but of modern literature. She did not know what she absorbed silence was as flattering as the professor's compliments.

And all evening, George tried to get Gloria alone for a moment, and all evening she cleverly avoided him. Finally, when most of the guests had left, he went up to her, put his arm around her forcibly danced off with her. Pan saw that she was talking earnestly—and naturally wondered.

In contrast to his earnestness, came Gloria's constant laugh—half a note too shrill for real merriment. What was the matter with her? As Pan stood, watching and waiting for them to finish, holding her cape around her head to leave—she realized suddenly that she was in love with George. The shock of the discovery made her feel almost faint for a moment.

Friday—A Lost Illusion

Dinner Stories

Ole Oleson wanted to be a railroad man. So he got a job in a roundhouse as engine wiper. His foreman had been with him in the "Tim Hill school," he allowed no waste. He everlastingly kept ding-donging Ole like this:

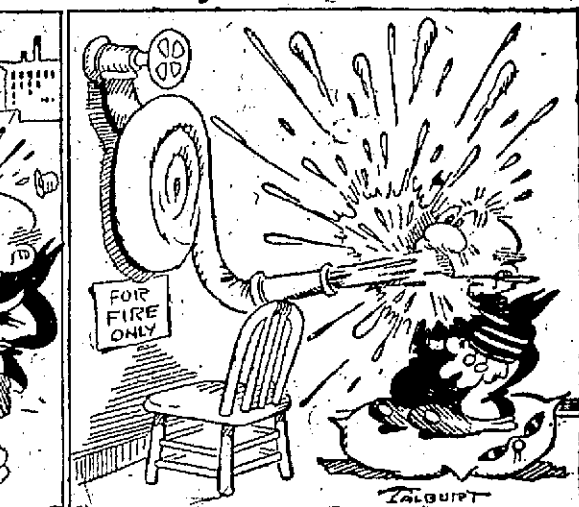

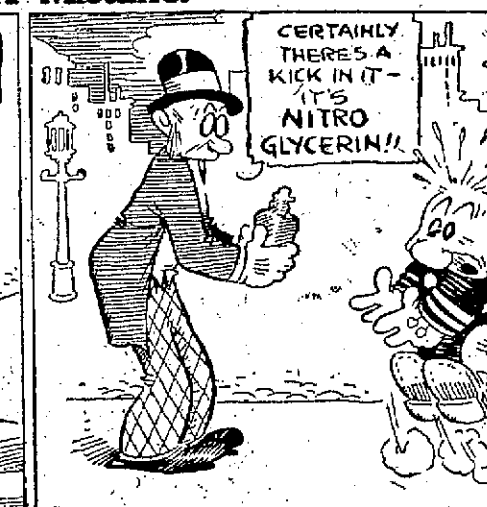

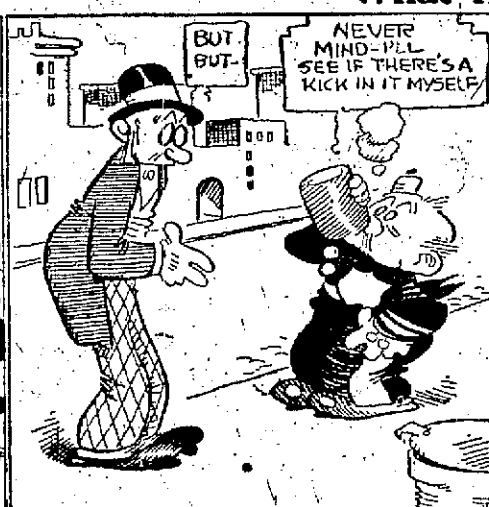

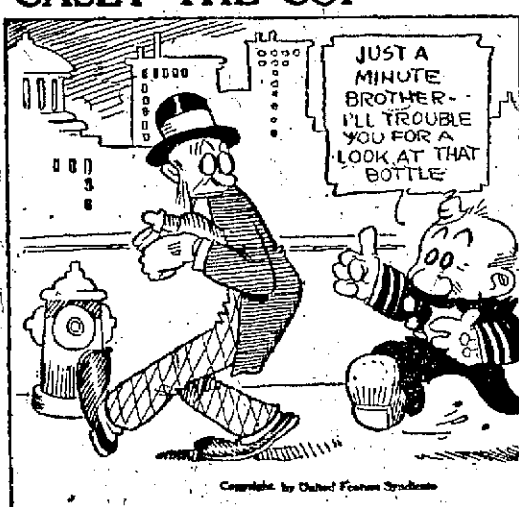

"Don't waste a drop of oil, Ole! oil costs money. And don't waste the waste, either; it's getting mighty expensive." Ole finally got these economy facts pounded into his head.

One day Ole was promoted to fireman. The day before he went on his regular run on a freight engine he was posted as to his duties through a series of questions. This was the first question: "Now, Ole, suppose you are on your engine; you go around a curve and see rushing toward you on a single track the fastest passenger train. What would you do?"

Ole replied: "I grab the dam oil can; I grab the dam waste—and I YUM!"—Buffalo Courier.

Al Smith says he's going to put on his George Harveys and do a lot of hard work in Albany, and New York don't know whether he means shell-rimmed goggles, knee pants or cap and bells.—Detroit News.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: When two people are engaged and are to be married soon is it all right for them to kiss each other? DEBBIE Certainly it is all right. You are old enough to have an occasional caller. There is no fixed rule in such matter, but since you are only 17 I would say that once a week is often enough to have company.

J. T. H.: Naturally you are concerned about your sister since the young man has tuberculosis. As you say, it is bad enough that he is so young. A matter like this, however, is in the hands of fate and will work itself out regardless of interference on your part. Your sister is certainly old enough to know her own mind, and since she loves him deeply I would advise you to let her go on working out her own life with-out opposition from you.

Do your own thinking and follow your own tastes and you will become more and more individual. If you try to do unusual, and odd things you will become peculiar and your personality will be disagreeable instead of pleasing. A high school girl can hardly expect to have a decided personality, because she is not developed and her character is not formed. My advice is simply to follow your own star and to have faith that you will be as attractive individually by so doing. Continue to be considerate of other people, because if you are selfish and thoughtless you will never be popular.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 17 years old and have bobbed hair. I weigh 160 pounds. Can you tell me how much over normal weight I am and what will reduce my weight?

Should a girl of my age go with boys and how often? M. T. L. P.

Since you have not mentioned your height, I cannot tell you how much overweight you are. My advice is to get a book on reducing. You can buy one for a dollar. People who study how to reduce and follow the key to the calories which are given in such books can regulate their weight. You are eating foods with too many calories, such as sweets and fats. As soon as you are careful of your diet you will begin to lose.

ADVENTURE TRAILS

BLAZED FOR YOU BY LEWIS ALLEN BROWN

(Say, Brother Adventurer, if there are any camp or woodcraft stunts you want to know about—ask me! If you know of any that will help the other fellows—tell me, and I'll be in care of the editor of this paper.—L. A. B.)

A few raindrops splattered down on the camp and Ted came out and secured a cigar box that had been drying in the sun for several days. He thrust it under his coat as he dashed back. It was a clear box he had secured at the store, and from which he had soaked off all the labels and other paper.

"You'd think this was valuable," laughed Ned.

"Don't want it to get wet, can't make a good 'boxelele' out of it," explained Ted.

"Who ever heard of a 'boxelele,'" laughed Ned.

"It's a word I invented and by good rights it should be registered. It means a sort of ukulele made out of a cigar box."

"Aw, you can't make a ukulele out of a cigar box," laughed Ted, "and as it looks like a steady rain I might start in now."

Ned was promptly interested. He watched Ted get out, glue wires, screws and other things but at the same time he laughed as he didn't believe Ted could really make a musical instrument out of it.

of the housewife will evolve many dishes pleasing to the taste of her family and pleasing, too, from the standpoint of variety.

These vegetable combinations are particularly good when served with baked fish with enough hot water or meat stock to provide sufficient steam to keep them from drying out.

Try a combination of the vegetables ordinarily used in boiled dinners or croquet being sure that they all require about the same length of time in which to cook.

HELPFUL HINTS.
Make Bunches at Fastened Drums—After using crocheted cotton save the little pastboard drums on which it is wound, cover them with crepe paper an inch or more than the depth, so that a little frill is formed around the top, twist a narrow strip of the paper and fasten on for a handle, and have a pretty little bonbon basket. At Christmas paint the boxes with gold paint, using tinsel for the handle and a string of beads for the top. A pretty Christmas tree ornament, to be filled with candy.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up.
This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Really and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up a stubborn cough. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, and the cough itself is lessened. A good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, throat, tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. Keep perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

I began using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." Still a Girl

In bloom and beauty—due to clay

By Edna Wallace Hopper

"After 31 years as a stage star, I look like a girl of 19. My complexion is as soft and rosy as a debutante's."

"You see me playing young girls' parts and envy me, perhaps. But you can do what I do. Any woman can enhance her beauty and preserve her bloom. I have arranged to supply you the very methods which did so much for me."

Clay is essential
The chief essential is complexion clay. Famous beauties have for ages used it. Without it, women cannot hope for beauty at its best. The users of facial clay stand out in any crowd!

French experts introduced it to me some 20 years ago. But the clay then used was crude and muddy. Now, after 20 years of scientific study, clay has been perfected.

Physicists found the best clay—certain mineral-rich clay. Then they learned how to refine it, to remove the useless mud. The modern clay is white, clean, dainty, and it doesn't stain.

The science has found some added factors which bring multiplied results. I use this modern clay—ten times better than the old-time clays. And I have had it prepared for all who want it, under the name Edna Wallace Hopper's Youth Clay.

Quick and amazing.

The effects of Youth Clay are quick and apparent. In a few minutes women often seem to drop ten years.

It purges the skin of all that clogs it—the cause of blackheads, pimples and other imperfections. It draws the blood to the skin to nourish and revive it. The result is that rosy afterglow which so amazes one at first.

It firms the skin, combats the cause of wrinkles and enlarged pores. Thus it gives and maintains a youthful bloom and contour. It prevents and corrects sagging muscles.

Continued use brings what it brought to me—decades of added youth.

If you are using a cruder clay, compare it with my white Youth Clay. Note the multiplied effects. If you don't use clay, start now. To women in these days can afford to go without it.

You should use my Youth Cream afterwards—a lemon and strawberry cream. Get it if you will. But try my Youth Clay anyway. See
